

For over 15 years and 300-plus concerts, Bill Robison has brought down the house with side-splitting comedy hijinks. His uproariously funny blend of masterful physical comedy, mimic and audience improvisation has made him a hands down favorite wherever he goes! Working entirely within the crowd, Bill creates "Living Caricatures" of unsuspecting concert goers.

Bill's specialty is highly spontaneous audience interactions. He lights up the crowd with an infinite variety of delightfully hilarious (and slightly mischievous) antics. His high energy and physical mastery has thrilled crowds (often up 10,000 people or more) in concert venues across the country. Bill has warmed up for every conceivable type of concert and audience demographic. A guaranteed smash hit!!
