

BLAINE MOODY

BASS, VOCALS, REVEREND

Blaine Moody has been a fixture in NW music since the 70's. Most notably with the band Seafood Mamma, later known as Quarterflash. That's right, The NW favorite "Harden my Heart" group. He's entertained fans of The Byrds, Jan & Dean, The Thunderbirds, George Thorogood

Diamond Rio, Restless Heart, Heidi Newfield. In the late 90's and throughout the new millennium Blaine has been taking his own personal message of oneness and faith to Churches around the northwest. When he's not onstage with Carrie or hiking anywhere his feet take him, you can find him at Centers for Spiritual Living, Unity, and New Thought churches on Sunday. His CD "Holy Now" is filled with music of personal empowerment through faith in a power greater than ourselves. You can buy "Holy Now" at any of Carrie's shows.

GARY LAPADO

GUITAR, STEEL, FIDDLE, VOCALS

He's the most wanted musician in the Northwest. Band leaders are often found in dark alleys bribing each other to not try and steal him for themselves.

Gary carries over 38 years of live performance experience. He's toured as Johnny Lee's lead guitar man and fiddler and has opened for such acts as Brooks and Dunn, The Charlie Daniels Band, Keith Urban, Leann Rimes, Booker T and the MGs, The Little River Band and Taj Mahal, just to name a few. Gary's incredible virtuosity and versatility never fails to wow audiences. From his epic version of Dire Straits' Sultans of swing, to his foot-stomping fiddling on Orange Blossom Special and Devil Went Down to Georgia, Gary's awe-inspiring performances will leave you wanting for more.
